A non-profit organization teaming with youth who are physically challenged to overcome and rejoice in God's great outdoors.

Kilgore's Kids teams with the youth of any age who have physical disabilities and teaches them about God's great outdoors. The mission of Kilgore's Kids is to build the youth up mentally, physically, and spiritually to create a wonderful love for the outdoors, while creating a lifetime of skills. Whether it is hunting, fishing, or other outdoor activities, we mentor the youth with respect to create a positive learning experience while creating lasting relationships.

As a participant in Kilgore's Kids, each hunt/activity will be tailored to each individual youth. The youth will have a checklist of goals and accomplishments showing the progression of their skill. Through orientation and multiple trainings, the youth will increase their abilities, while learning hunter safety courses and learning to respect the environment through best practices. Ultimately meeting the top level of their abilities, they then get to fulfill their dream with an awesome adventure with Kilgore's kids.

While learning about the great outdoors, the youth are introduced to the great Creator of it all in a Bible based non-denominational fashion. This key emphasis on salvation and everlasting life helps us all cope with life's misfortunes while focusing on what is truly important.
